THE PRESS NOW NEARING HALF HUNDRED YEARS

Forty-Ninth Anniversary To Start With The Next Issue

PLANT BEING IMPROVED

Rated Best Weekly The State Has; The Press Will Grow More

The Republican Press is approaching a life of half a hundred years, the next issue being the forty-ninth milestone of its publication. As one looks back over the old files they find The Press has at all times been steadily growing into a bigger and better newspaper until today it is generally conceded to be the best weekly newspaper in California. However, good as The Republican Press is, the aim is to make it even better and everything possible to do this will be done.

Plant Is Improved.

The mechanical needs of The Press are always kept up to high standard and only six weeks ago the largest and fastest job press made was purchased by The Press. Upon the arrival of the new press the shafting in the back office will be removed and all of the presses, four in number, will be run by individual motors. The next step in betterment will be the purchase of a large, fast-operating news press so the size of The Press may be increased to 10 pages seven columns and all this will be developed before the public knows about it. Entering on its forty-ninth anniversary The Republican Press policy will go on as it is—producing a newsy paper, uncontrolled.

STAGE IN NO MANNER INVOLVED IN MISHAPS

Aid Was Extended The Injured; Works Of Mercy Performed

The West Coast Transit Co. stage which ran onto several accidents on its trip north Sunday night a week ago was not in any manner involved in the mishaps. As a mater of fact, the stage experienced no accident whatever, and was not the cause of any accident. The only unfortunate situation for which the stage was to blame was the fact that, on finding the main highway blocked, it tried to get its passengers to their destination by another route, but in doing so, it sank in the mud on this little used alternate road. But even in so doing, there were no accidents, and no one was injured in any way. The accidents all occurred in private automobiles.

It Gave Aid.

The stage simply happened upon automobile accidents and extended relief of a most praiseworthy kind to the victims. In reality the stage was an angel of mercy to the injured.

Wm. Hoppyn, of Needle Rock, was a business visitor to Ukiah Saturday.

Useless Searching Is Seen By Lakeporters

The Lakeport Bee in mentioning the continuation of the blockhouse on the state highway, after stating there had been a great deal of opposition to the only thing of its kind in the state, upon the part of people who foresaw the baneful result it would have as a system of objectionable search and espionage, went on to say: "Several cars belonging to Lakeport people were reported to have been searched but no liquor was found and the cars were allowed to proceed."

COUNCIL DECIDES TO CONDUCT A FREE PARK

Ukiah Now Too Widely Known As A Liberal Host To Charge

Owing to the fact Ukiah has received state-wide publicity as maintaining a free public camp ground the city council has decided to continue to maintain the park, for the summer at least, as such. Propaganda to the effect Ukiah had a free public camp ground is in the hands of every tourist, according to Caretaker W. F. Ornbaun and the change to a charge for over-night privileges, would make endless misunderstanding and would give Ukiah an unpleasant standing with the traveling public.

No Charge Believed Best.

At the present time Ukiah has few accommodations for which to charge compared with other cities, which maintain social halls with reading rooms, open fires, swimming pools and other equipment of a first-class tourist camp. From the standpoint of many, Ukiah's free public camp ground is the best means of advertising available at the present time and the decision of the city council meets with the approval of the majority.

UKIAH DEFEATED WILLITS 6 TO 5

Fine Hold-Your-Breath Game Gave Fans Many Thrills

(By Clair Elledge)

The Ukiah baseball team journeyed north last Sunday and indulged in a 10-inning goose-pimple producer with the Willits aggregation. The game was a now-you-see-it-now-you-don't affair and when the haze of battle finally cleared away Prather's men had another victory over the northerners stowed away. The final score was 6 to 5 and Manager Prather never came up for air until Bev Broaddus whiffed Persico for the third out in the last of the tenth. Contrary to the usual rule, Old Man Hardluck dogged the path of our opponents and thereby hangs the proverbial tale.

Pitchers Are Changed.

Persico allowed the Ukiah sluggers but six safe hits and with the exception of the seventh inning he kept them well separated. His alleged support gummed up the works, however, by booting seven chances all over the lot. The festivities began in the fifth when Zimmerman and Egliht, who had each drawn a pass ,scored on successive errors by Allenby and Kennedy. Willits came right back in her half of the same stanza and drove Egliht from the mound by scoring four runs. Broaddus went in the box then and stemmed the rush.

Only three hits were made off Egliht during his four and two-thirds innings of work, but two of them, plus a walk, a wild pitch, a hit batsman and a passed ball upset his effectiveness for the time being. In the seventh inning Hooper and Bev Broaddus each rapped out a two-bagger, thereby bringing Egliht, Blackson and Hooper across for three more tallies. Willits showed they were still in the game in the eighth by scoring the tying marker on three singles. The ninth saw no break in the deadlock but in the tenth, Laton, who reached first and then second on Heckendorf's two bobbles and third on a passed ball, came in with a run on W. Broaddus' sacrifice fly. That proved to be the deciding count for Bev struck out Wilson, Page and Persico in the order named when Willits came up.

Broaddus Was There.

Broaddus doled out six safe bingles during five and one-third innings but had command of the situation at all times and the two errors behind him did no serious damage. His fielding was also timely as he cut off a run at the plate in the seventh and again in the eighth.

Features Of The Game.

B. Broaddus, with two two-baggers, and Pool, with two singles, showed the way to the Ukiah stickers. Hooper's hit was also a two-base smack and Zimmerman gathered in a nice single. Quadro and Page each hit two for Willits. Brilliant fielding was not in order for the day as the infield was bumpy and caked, and the mountainous outfield was hard to figure. However, the Ukiah ball chasers performed very creditably and should play errorless ball next Saturday and Sunday when they take on the strong Jefferson Club nine at the Municipal diamond.

THE CHARM SCHOOL CHARMED BIG THRONG

High School Players In Clever Comedy Were Warmly Greeted

A crowded house is nothing new for thespians of the Ukiah high school. Semi-yearly the school plays to capacity houses because they have the undivided backing of the Ukiah public but it is seldom a more enthusiastic audience greets the players than upon the occasion of the presentation of the student body play "The Charm School" which was given Monday night at The State Theatre to a capacity house.

Players Well Coached.

The cast included 20 young people, nine of whom were principals. The players were coached by W. A. Chessall, science teacher of the school, and the splendid showing made by the performers is due largely to his effort, as with few exceptions, the talent was new to the Ukiah public. The play was

ROTARY CLUB IS GIVEN CHARTER

Program Exceptionally Enjoyed By A Large Number Friday

The presentation of the charter to the Ukiah Rotary Club Friday evening at the elementary school auditorium was made in the presence of 190 Rotarians and their friends who enjoyed a banquet prior to the program. Paul Rieger, of San Francisco, past district governor of Rotary International, made the presentation to Robert Austin, president of the local club, who responded happily. Following the presentation Mr. Rieger addressed the assemblage in the main speech of the evening, covering the formation and development of the Rotary Club movement throughout the world and lauding the work and the rapid stride maintained in its development.

Gavel Was Given.

The sponsoring club at Santa Rosa, through Carl Bundschu, presented the Ukiah club with a gavel which was accepted for the Ukiah rotarians by C. M. Mannon. Gus Wright, of Santa Rosa, presided at the meeting, adding a rare vein of humor to the usual pleasantries expected of a presiding officer. Tom Bridges, of Oakland, district governor elect to succeed Mr. Rieger, was present and responded to demands for a speech.

All Became Acquainted.

The evening was marked by informality and jollity throughout, the addresses being frequently interspersed with unison singing and stunts on the

CIVIL WAR VETERAN BURIED LAST SUNDAY

George William Grant Is Called; Fought At Battle Of Shiloh

Another pioneer, who fought and bled and suffered for his country crossed the great divide Friday when George William Grant, of East Hopland, veteran of the Civil War, answered the final summons at his home folowing an illness due to apoplexy.

A Native Of Indiana.

Mr. Grant was born in Jefferson county, Indiana, Nov. 6, 1837. At the age of three years he moved with his parents to Henry county, Iowa, where he grew to manhood. In 1861 he enlisted in the 14th Iowa regiment where he was made corporal. In 1863 he was promoted to sergeant of the same company and in 1864 was again advanced.

Fought At Shiloh.

He was taken prisoner at the battle of Shiloh and held in prison nine months. Later in the same year he received a bullet wound in the leg. He carried the bullet to the time of his death. In 1864 he was honorably discharged from the army at Davenport, Iowa, by Captain Warren C. Jones, of the 14th Iowa regiment. In 1862 upon his first furlough home he married Miss Terzah Burdett. To them were born 11 children, nine of whom grew to maturity. In 1875 with his wife and four children Mr. Grant moved to Ukiah where he lived four years. In 1879 he moved to East Hopland where he engaged in farming and mercantile pursuits until his death May 22, 1925.

Those Who Survive.

The children who survive Mr. Grant are Warren C., of Ukiah; Mrs. A. W. McNulty, of San Francisco; Horace G., of Cloverdale; Orval O., of Hopland; James B. Grant, of Oakland. Seven grandchildren also survive and one brother, T. Grant, of Kansas. Mrs. F. C. Albertson, of this city, was a niece. The funeral services were held in Hopland Sunday with Rev. A. A. Doak, of Ukiah, officiating. Interment was in the family plot in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. And so is recorded the passing of another of those sturdy pioneers whose ranks are becoming pitifully thin and who gave and endured much that the present civilization might reach the high plane it has attained. Loved and esteemed by his friends and neighbors for his strict and honorable business integrity, there are many who will mourn the passing of George William Grant and who will extend sincere sympathy to his family in the grief of his going.

WENT TO FUNERAL

A. B. and Fred McKenzie, of this city, were called to Monticello Friday by the death of their brother-in-law, William Cook. They returned home Sunday.

H. E. Spurlock, of Covelo, attended to business affairs in Ukiah over the week-end.

Holiday Ball Games Feature Week End

HEADQUARTERS OF BUS LINES COME TO UKIAH

A SACRAMENTO OUTLET?

Plans Are To Operate To Williams And Also Calistoga

A formal transfer of the Miller Stage Line, operating between Ukiah and Upper Lake, to The West Coast Transit Co. was completed Saturday. W. H. WORKINGMAN'S STORE STARTING BIG SALE

Opportunity To Save On Merchandise Buying Given Public

Two years ago R. Wiel purchased The Workingman's Store from H. Schirmer and since that time has been doing a business satisfactory to himself and one which is constantly adding pleased customers among patrons all over the county.

Adopts Correct Methods.

At frequent intervals Mr. Wiel has conducted sales during which he has marked down goods of standard quality to astonishingly low figures. "It pays to turn your stock over. Give close prices, sell for cash and buy right and the purchasing public get the advantage and your trade grows." This has been Mr. Wiel's rule to operate by and he has made it go.

Puts On Real Sales.

The first of June Mr. Wiel will conduct a cost-slashing sale which should be taken advantage of. The merchandise is just as represented and the figures at which it is offered cannot be duplicated. This is Mr. Wiel's second anniversary sale.

Frances E. Stewart, of Needle Rock, was registered at a local hotel Monday.

Stores Will Close

The Ukiah stores will be closed all day Saturday, May 30. Do your buying for the week-end Friday.

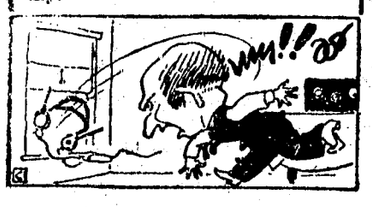
Poem by Uncle John

If we'd count the lady soloists of which we're jestly proud, there'd be a lot of people that's astonished at the crowd. Of course we learn statistics that we didn't usto know, when they come in bales and baskets on the family radio.

My neighbor—right here by me—is inclined to make mistakes, for he hates the high sopranner like St. Patrick hated snakes; He says it cracks his eardrums when he listens at 'em squeal—which in regards to song-birds ain't the proper way to feel.

We hear some fiery language at the female opry-scores—why, my neighbor jerked his headset off, an' throwed it out of doors! Sometimes I argy with him, that a thing which can't be cured, like the fierce sopranner solo, somehow has to be endured. If anything can make me grab my sword and want to slay —it's to hear a blubberin' Basso strike "The Road to Mandalay."



THE TRUTH
"—is also found in frank confession of error"

The Republican Press will be glad to receive and publish corrections of inaccuracies in its columns.

WOULD STIMULATE TRAVEL

"DEMOCRACY at sea" is an ambiguous and misleading phrase, but under that caption The New York Times discusses the plan advocated by Edward A. Filene, of Boston, for popularizing trans-Atlantic travel among our people. Mr. Filene propounded his plan in an address delivered before the American Marine Association in New York.

He called for the abolition on passenger ships of the second and third class quarters. According to his idea ships could be changed to one class on the hotel plan, whereby a passenger would pay according to the desirability of his cabin, but should have the use of the entire ship. Another radical proposal is the substitution of the cafeteria plan for the present style dining salon. These changes would make possible a round-trip fare to Europe of $100, plus an estimated $25 to cover the passenger's expenditure for food in the cafeteria, Mr. Filene said.

The need for some drastic method to stimulate ocean travel is made manifest by the great falling off of immigration into this country since the United States put up the bars. To offset this loss special tours of teachers, students, war veterans and other groups were arranged at first, but after all they were merely makeshifts. The great body of potential travelers in this country was not reached.

When it is added that Mr. Filene's proposal was "seriously received" by the transatlantic steamship operators it is made clear that they feel the present loss of patronage and are alive to the need of encouraging travel from this side.

Should low rates be fixed there is no doubt but that both the steamship companies and the public would profit greatly. Travel will increase by leaps and bounds. Quarters now empty on ocean-going liners will be filled to capacity, and thousands of Americans who otherwise would be denied the privileges of travel can easily muster the ways and means to go ahead for a time, immeasurably adding to the worthwhileness of life and incidentally bridging the chasm of international misunderstanding.

A RETURN TO SANITY

A sweeping arraignment of the Eighteenth Amendment and of measures to enforce the Volstead law was launched by Granville McGowan, of Los Angeles, president of the California Medical Association, before the 54th annual convention of that body at Yosemite Valley.

Dr. McGowan characterized prohibition as a "state of civil war throughout the land," and declared the flood of alcoholic liquors into this country "was a menace with which the medical profession must cope."

"Nowhere during extensive travels of the last three years have I observed any shortage of liquors," said the doctor. "Everywhere I saw drinking among boys and girls, as well as older persons, and liquor flasks openly on sale in stores and shops."

"Disregard for the prohibition law breeds disrespect for all laws," the doctor said. "There will not be a return to the old order," he continued. "The open saloon was a menace to public health and morals, but the American people must take a sane view of the situation. The problem is one which the medical profession can no longer ignore."

"The surest way to obtain liquor is by alliance with those who are charged with prohibition enforcement," he concluded.

LOYALTY

He may be six kinds of a liar,
He may be ten kinds of a fool,
He may be a wicked highflier
Beyond any reason or rule;
There may be a shadow above him
Of ruin and woes to impend,
And I may not respect, but I love him,
Because—well, because he's my friend.

I know he has faults by the billion,
But his faults are a portion of him;
I know that his record's vermillion,
And he's far from the sweet seraphim;
But he's always been square with yours truly,
All ready to give or to lend;
And though he is wild and unruly,
I like him because he's my friend.

I knock him, I know, but I do it
The same to his face as away,
And if other folks knock—well, they rue it
And wish they'd had nothing to say!
I never make diagrams of him,
No maps of his soul have I penned
For I don't analyze, I just love him,
Because—well, because he's my friend.

ROTARY CLUB IS part of visiting rotarians from Richmond, Petaluma, Sebastopol, Santa Rosa, Lakeport, Fort Bragg and Napa.

Music Was Excellent.

Interesting special numbers included a group of selections by the Ukiah Concert Orchestra under the direction of E. J. Anderson, an Indian song number by Mrs. E. W. Stephens with Mrs. Hofman at the piano and Mrs. E. J. Anderson playing the flute obligato. When pressed for a response number Mrs. Stephens graciously suggested unison singing which she led, with Mr. Stephens at the piano.

Santa Rosa Lady Sang.

Mrs. Mark Lee, of Santa Rosa, wife of the secretary of the chamber of commerce of that city, sang three numbers, the last by special request of the Sebastopol contingent.

Congratulations Numerous.

A symposium in which local and visiting speakers glimpsed the future for the Rotary Club movement was led by J. H. Kirkpatrick of the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce, who has been active throughout the preliminary details of the formation and organization of the Ukiah club. Every visiting rotarian present, to the number of about 50, responded when his name was called. Prior to adjournment President Austin announced the local club were the recipients of telegrams and messages of good will numbering in all more than 40 and from every quarter of the state and one from Portland, Oregon.

CLUB HOME MECCA OF SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

With an enthusiastic pledge to make "a club home in 1925" the slogan for the year's work the Saturday Afternoon Club closed its doors, figuratively speaking, until October, Saturday afternoon, following a luncheon served to 35 club members at Blue Lakes. The cycle of the year just closed has been one of steady growth. The program has covered almost every phase of constructive effort with an emphasis on mental, moral and economic problems as they have been presented by speakers and committee heads.

At Saturday's luncheon Host Harry Kemp provided delightfully for the club members with a several-course luncheon skillfully served at one long table effectively decorated in a flat arrangement of roses and wild ferns with an ocasional mound of pink roses to break the low effect. Following the close of the luncheon there was the usual order of business which was followed by the report of retiring officers and committees and election of officers. Financial reports showed the club to be in a flourishing condition. Mrs. Hale McCowen, Jr., retiring president, relinquished the gavel to Mrs. F. E. Gilmore in a sincere speech, free from all preparedness. Mrs. Gilmore accepted the office in the same wholesome manner which speaks volumes for the future welfare of the club.

Mrs. C. M. Fulkerson, past president of the club and delegate to the California Federation of Women's Clubs convention held last week in Santa Cruz, made a report on the proceedings, stressing the importance of the three addresses made before the convention by Dr. Frederick Roman, traveler, lecturer and author, of New York. Compared with the three addresses by Dr. Roman other features of the convention faded into insignificance, said Mrs. Fulkerson. Dr. Roman termed Americans morons in mental development compared to the material advancement of their surroundings and said American education practice is far behind the educational ideal. Schools are turning out unprepared pupils because of overcrowded conditions. The war forced a world unity based on fear. Such a unity cannot prevail. Modern woman's dress is up-to-date, but her economic spiritual ideals are antiquated. Our moron population is not able to digest the thrills and sensations of the present extreme scientific and material advancement; in short, we are suffering from an overdose of material development, says Dr. Roman, who advocated greater freedom of press and educators.

According to Mrs. Fulkerson the federation went on record as opposing the state teachers tenure bill, which provides that after two consecutive years of employment teachers shall be considered permanently employed and can only be discharged after formal complaint charges have been made. At the close of Mrs. Fulkerson's report the club was adjourned but the ladies lingered at the beautiful resort for an hour or more before motoring home.

ATTENDED CHAUTAUQUA

With no Chautauqua attraction of their own this year Ukiah city residents turned their faces northward last week and nightly large numbers motored to Willits to enjoy the high class entertainment. The roads are in excellent condition which added greatly to the pleasure of the trip. Among local folk enjoying the program Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Hale McCowen, Jr., Dr. L. K. Van Allen and family, Dr. and Mrs. R. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Nassie, L. J. Romer, Mrs. W. I. Davis, Miss Virginia Benjes, Miss Pauline Benjes, Miss Lucile Le Bastie, Harry Gilmore and Merle Iversen.

ASSOCIATION TO CARE FOR THE CEMETERY

By MARIE HINTON REA

Is there anything more pathetic, from the viewpoint of neglect, than the cemetery of the average country town? Driveways tangled with wild grasses and weeds, overhung with branches from unpruned trees, heaped with the litter from nearby burial plots—could any thing be more desolate? And yet it should be a place of profound peace, reverently significant of the hall of the heart that is empty. Yesterday life, today a memory.

The near approach of Memorial Day but impresses the need for concerted action to make the Ukiah cemeteries the sanctum of the city's dead. Beauty is there but it must be put in order. Spring may dim, with her own fair coming, the wild disorder the summer reveals in the resting place of our beloved dead. There is a remedy and it is being successfully applied in many places facing the same problem as Ukiah. It is a cemetery association which, by its organization, looks after the lots of members the year 'round. There is a membership fee to meet the expense and in addition the power of organization will compel many not otherwise interested to co-operate in the care of the plots. The membership fund also provides for the care of the driveways and walks—in short it completely puts in order the city of the dead. There is no need to point out the advantages of such an organization. It is an obligation and a duty. Do not be critical, but act and Ukiah need not be ashamed of her cemeteries.

LITERARY TEA

The May literary meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. church, south, held Thursday afternoon in the church parlors proved to be a very interesting and well-attended social function. Mrs. Hale McCowen, Sr., presided. The hospitality committee was made up of Mrs. G. E. Jamison, Mrs. Mamie York and Mrs. Julia Ford. The program included a piano duet by the Misses Beasley, young daughters of Reverend and Mrs. L. C. Beasley, and a reading on a missionary subject by Mrs. McCowen, Sr. The parlors were beautifully decorated with roses and a tea service of strawberry shortcake and coffee was enjoyed.

PYTHIAN THIMBLE BEE

Mrs. C. H. Duncan was the hostess at the second of the May Thimble Bee Club meetings of the Pythian Sisters Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Duncan received her guests at her pleasant home in North School street, where a charming arrangement of sweet peas and greenery made a fragrant setting for the pleasant afternoon of sewing and chatting that cements a strong fraternal spirit. Following the needlework the ladies enjoyed a two-course tea service at one large table. The appointments were carried out in pink and were charming beyond description with sweet peas arranged in a mound fringed by ferns in the center of the table and place cards and other features including corsage bouquets in the same lovely tone. Covers were laid for 14. Mrs. W. I. Davis assisted Mrs. Duncan in receiving and entertaining. The club will meet shortly at the home of Mrs. William Gibson in Scott and Oak streets.

The event was staged in the beautiful spot on Robinson Creek maintained by the Chapinge Club. The tables were spread out of doors and decorated in wild flowers and ferns. The retiring president, Miss Marguerite Connolly, and her staff of officers received a vote of thanks from the club for their efficient regime. Officers installed following election were Mrs. F. M. Society is asked to keep the date in mind and purchase tickets, even if unable to attend.

BRIDGE CLUB SERIES

Mrs. F. C. Bull was hostess to the members of the Alpha Bridge Club on Wednesday in the second week in May. Mrs. Bull received her guests at two o'clock at her suburban home north of Calpella where a bridge session was followed by a tea service. Roses made a charming decoration in the living room of the home. The score favor was won by Mrs. Taylor McGarvey. Mrs. P. R. Cooper substituted.

Last Wednesday the club was entertained by Mrs. J. C. Hurley, with Mrs. Taylor McGarvey again carrying off the high score honor and Mrs. P. H. Cooper substituting in the absence of Mrs. Sam Souder.

Mrs. Hurley chose a most unique decoration scheme the house and table decorations carrying out a Chinese motif with lanterns of Oriental design to light the rooms. Burning incense added reality to the scene as did the low bowl of iris that supplied the floral note. The menu included chop suey, served in true Oriental fashion with chop sticks, the manipulation of which caused a great deal of merriment. The club will meet today at the home of Mrs. Laura Shattuck in West Perkins street.

OH! MY BACK!

Aching Back Makes Life Miserable For Many Ukiah People.

It isn't right to suffer day in and day out with dull, unceasing backache. Or be utterly miserable with sharp stabs of pain whenever you stoop or lift. But chances are you will suffer these tormenting aches and pains as long as your weakened kidneys are neglected. You may have headaches, too, spells of dizziness and urinary disorders. Then use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Experiences of Ukiah people prove the merit of Doan's.

W. L. Sawyer, carpenter, 606 Dora St., Ukiah, Calif., says: "My kidneys acted too freely and I was in such a condition I could hardly get about. My back ached and when I stooped I had sharp quick catches over my kidneys. I used Doan's Pills from Gibson's Drug Store and they stopped the backache and put my kidneys in good order."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Sawyer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

DEPARTURE REGRETTED

Ukiah generally and educational circles particularly, will learn with regret of the contemplated departure of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blackman for Willits, where Mr. Blackman has been offered the principalship of the Willits high school and Mrs. Blackman a position on the faculty. No residents in recent years have won such wide commendation for community service as have Mr. and Mrs. Blackman, he in his capacity as supervisor of the Mendocino valley schools and Mrs. Blackman as teacher of English in the Ukiah high school and it is with exceeding great regret Ukiah will learn of their departure.

MYSTIC CLAYTON IS CAUSING SENSATION

Work Last Evening Was Of Most Uncanny Kind Imaginable

Mystic Clayton opened at The State Theatre last night and was greeted by a large crowd. He will be here three days. With him is Count De Ziska. The crowd last night went away unable to explain what had taken place. Count De Ziska has charge of the first part in Magic and Illusions of the Far East, which included shooting a marked bullet through a lady's body—this is one of the sensations of the east. Wednesday night the feature illusion will be the famous sword girl—in which the girl, Miss Pauline Richards, is placed in a box and 20 army swords are placed from side to side at every angle, to explain this feature is impossible.

He Has No Equal.

The second part of the show is taken by Mystic Clayton with his Crystal Simla Seance, in which it is claimed he has no equal, and the papers of San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento and other places are loud in their praise for his masterful and uncanny work—calls those by name in the audience—answers sealed questions—and many other interesting experiments that belong to the ocult science. Mystic Clayton will give a special matinee for ladies only Thursday afternoon—he says the ladies have delicate and personal questions they do not care to ask in the open theatre—so a special show for ladies only will be given.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS

Mrs. F. M. Reynolds entertained a group of ladies Friday afternoon who meet occasionally with their sewing to pass an afternoon socially and in needlework. Upon this occasion a few guests were asked to meet with the usual gathering. Tea was served prior to leave-taking.

MUSICAL CONCERT

pectations, both from the quality and quantity of the music and the attendance, which with the exception of the oratorio, was the largest on record.

Everyone Was Delighted.

Under the direction of Mr. Anderson the ensemble of young musicians seemed endowed with the power to express at once the whole effect and the personal incident of the compositions played as well as the vision and spirit of the composers. To the listeners it was really marvelous that so much could have been accomplished in so short a time and on every side was heard expressions of approval for the director and the schools that had brought about the wonderful result. Outstanding features in the concert by the orchestra included a clarinet solo by Stanley Rea who played a number from Rigoletto with Charlotte Mannon at the piano; a double violin duet by Martha Mannon, Rovella Curtis, Abraham Hoffman and Toivo Nyrhila, with Marie Rice at the piano, and an orchestration arranged with a solo for the cello which was played by Frances Rea. Each of the above numbers brought unstinted applause, as did the other numbers presented by the orchestra and band. Between the parts of the concert speeches were made by Principal C. M. Fulkerson of the high school, K. C. Eversole of the board of trustees of the elementary school, and Chas. Kasch. Each speaker emphasized the need for more time to teach music in the schools which has already been granted and lauded the efforts of Mr. Anderson.

IN AMERICAN MANNERS IS DARING MALE STAR

Life Is Risked In Every Film He Appears In These Days

One of the most daring of screen players is Richard Talmadge, who is starred in "American Manners," the F. B. O. picture coming to The State Theatre Monday.

He Is A Swiss.

Richard was born in Caumberg, Switzerland, and first appeared on the stage at the age of four. His father was famous not only in Europe but in America, as an actor and a showman. He was master of 13 different acts in which he played with his sons in vaudeville. Richard Talmadge, though comparatively a new star, is already known throughout the country because of his daring and fearlessness. He risks his life many times in every picture in which he appears and every thrill which is registered on the screen he performs himself. He was starred with great success recently in "Let's Go!" and "On Time."

Western Romance Full Of Happenings Of The Old-Time West

"Sundown," First National's long-expected drama of the west, which has proved to be the most pretentious effort of that company's own producing units, comes to the State Theatre Thursday and Friday of next week.

"Sundown" is an original story written by Earl Hudson, supervisor of the First National productions. The story unfolds the dramatic theme of the passing of the old west before the advance of cultivation. This is, incidentally, current history, since the encroachment on the unfenced ranges of the southwest recently caused American cattlemen to unite their herds and drive them across the Rio Grande into Mexico, and it was these scenes which were filmed by First National to be incorporated in "Sundown."

Great Herds Seen.

Never again will such huge herds be seen in the United States. More than 100,000 head of cattle will be seen winding their way in a huge line half a mile wide in this great production.

The human players who enact their roles against a background of awe-inspiring grandeur and immensity are: Hobart Bosworth, Bessie Love, Roy Stewart, Charlie Murray, Arthur Hoyt, Charles Sellon, Charles B. Crockett, Bernard Randall, Wilfrid North, Hal Wilson and Jere Austin.

YOUTHFUL BEAUTIES IN HANDSOME GOWNS

Dressmaker From Paris Shows Loveliness In Many Ways

A big fashion show picture coming to The State Theatre.

That's "The Dressmaker From Paris," featuring Leatrice Joy and Ernest Torrence.

A carnival of youth, romance and gorgeously gowned feminine beauty. A big comedy-love story laid in Paris and a town in the American West. And the Fourteen International Beauty Models, chosen by famous judges as the 14 most beautiful women in the world! Playing real parts in the picture and showing the last word in women's attire straight from Paris.

Here Next Tuesday.

Sounds interesting!

"The Dressmaker From Paris," coming to The State Theatre on Tuesday next, features Leatrice Joy and Ernest Torrence in the leading roles, with Allan Forrest, Mildred Harris and others just as well known in the strong supporting cast.

The story is an original for the screen by Adelaide Heilbron and Howard Hawks. Paul Bern, who made "Worldly Goods" and others, directed. It is Leatrice Joy's first picture in nearly a year.

"WINGS OF YOUTH" A STRONG SOCIAL STORY

Proves Usually Heart-Aches Follow Joys In Real Life

Motion picture fans who like their drama in fine settings will be pleased when they see "Wings of Youth," the William Fox production which opens at The State Theatre next Wednesday with Madge Bellamy and Ethel Clayton as the central figures. The picture tells a story of modern society, its mad tendencies and the resulting heart-aches.

Some Pretty Women.

In addition to Miss Bellamy and Miss Clayton, Katherine Perry and Marian Harlan, who are among the most beautiful girls on the screen, are in the cast and all of them wear an assortment of gowns that would put a Parisian modiste to shame.

There is plenty of love interest in the picture as well as comedy relief for a strong dramatic theme. Among the male members of the cast are Robert Cain, Charles Farrell and Freeman Wood.

NEW CURWOOD TALE PROVIDED THE SCREEN

Hunted Woman Is One Of Best Creations Of Great Writer

"The Hunted Woman," the William Fox picturization of James Oliver Curwood's celebrated novel of the North country, is the attraction at The State Theatre Sunday.

Heralded by William Fox as one of the most ambitious Alaskan pictures ever to issue from its studios, this virile, picturesque story is said to have involved tremendous hardships. Seven of the principal members of the cast spent 21 days amid snowy wastes where the thermometer ranged from 12 to 32 degrees below zero.

Seena Owen and Earl Schenck divide leading honors and both players gain added prestige by their work. Cyril Chadwick, Diana Miller, Victor MacLaglen, Francis McDonald and Harvey Clark are also in the cast.

Biggest Coast Rainfall Was Lately Recorded

The past week brought nearly three inches of rain, a fall seldom equalled in the coast section at this season of the year. From all points along the coast come reports of flooded lowlands, washed-out roads, delayed traffic. The coast section has suffered no appreciable loss except possibly to the strawberry crop. All coast crops will be late because of these late rains, but the growing season will be greatly prolonged, assuring late feed. The rainfall is as follows: previously reported 53.31, rainfall for the week 2.97; total for the season 56.28 inches.

The Misses Nettie and Pearl Taylor have returned from a visit of a week in San Francisco.

(Special Correspondence of The Press)

COVELO, May 26.—Mrs. C. H. Hemenway took her son, Emerald, to San Francisco the first of the week for medical attendance. His health has been bad for sometime. It is hoped relief may be obtained through the services of a specialist.

Leander Gobbi Estate Is Willed To Sisters

It is learned that under the terms of a will made by the late Leander Gobbi, which document was drawn up by Attorney T. J. Weldon, now deceased, several years ago, the property of Mr. Gobbi has been left to his two sisters, Miss Katherine Gobbi and Mrs. Anthony Sampson, of San Francisco. Just what the value of the estate of Mr. Gobbi will run to is not known, but the fact Mr. Gobbi owned one of the best vineyards in the valley makes it certain the value of the estate will go to a considerable figure.

WHOLE FAMILY NOW HURRYING THE WORK

Father And Five Sons Engaged On Willits-Ft. Bragg Highway

Contractor Thos. Ellison, who has the contract on the Willits-Fort Bragg road, says the new gasoline shovel recently purchased by him and put to work the forepart of this month is doing great work and is a most satisfactory piece of machinery to handle, being almost human in its movements. Its motive power is a 65-h.p. gasoline engine and ample power is developed for all purposes. This shovel will root out all smaller sized stumps and after the larger stumps have been shaken up by a blast of dynamite it takes the sections out in no time.

Whole Family Working.

Mr. Ellison is handling the job with his five sons aiding him as partners in the work and there is only one hired man on the job. Within a few weeks he expects to secure from Supervisor Fairbanks a steam shovel owned by him and now operating, cleaning up a piece of road work. With these two shovels in operation, the building of these three miles of road will go forward very rapidly. The new road, as laid out, comes in just south of the Horseshoe ranch, where it will cross the old road. It is a very easy grade running on up to five and one-half per cent.

Senator Handy Urged To Go To State Capitol

The men prominent in the movement to provide Golden Gate with a bridge have telegraphed Senator F. C. Handy, urging him to go to Sacramento and appear before Governor F. W. Richardson in advocacy of the bridge bill which Governor Richardson is now considering. Senator Handy had charge of the bridge bill in the legislature and to him, more than anyone else, is due the speedy manner in which both houses of the legislature handled the measure.

C. B. Melville Likely To Have To Run Again

C. B. Melville, who so well represented Mendocino county during the session of the legislature which closed two weeks ago, was in Ukiah Friday from his Fort Bragg home. Mr. Melville undoubtedly will, if he listens to the urging of people from all over the county, have to consent to again make the race at the election next year. From many places about the county have come words of praise for Mr. Melville. He was a first termer, but, notwithstanding all of the handicaps such a position carries with it, he emerged from the deliberations with praise from all sides. The taxpayers of this county could not do better than retain Mr. Melville in his present position.

Mrs. P. A. Pioda, of San Francisco, was a recent guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pioda, of this city.

MAKING A RAIN RECORD

Since the storm began Saturday at Fort Bragg 3.08 inches of rain has fallen, and of this amount 1.99 inches fell on Sunday. This makes a total of 4.22 inches of rain for the month of May, and for the season to date 48 inches. During May, 1915, the rainfall was 4.38 inches and from all appearances this month of May will put that record in the background.

Palace Hotel Is Adding Tents For The Autoists

For several seasons past motorists who did not desire to go to a public park have sought sleeping quarters of an open-air kind here and, to take care of this class of travelers, Frank Sandelin, at an outlay of several thousand dollars, has just completed the erection of 14 sleeping tents. The tents are located on the Sandelin property on the north side of Smith street between State and School streets. Each of the tents is provided with running water, floors and the best of beds obtainable. Electric lights are in each of the tents and the grounds are well lighted. There is ample parking space and shower baths for the men and women travelers. The open-air quarters will probably be well patronized throughout the summer.

The Community Club's camp for boys, about 16 miles east from Mendocino city, will be opened June 15.

The grape crop in the Ukiah valley promises to be unusually heavy and of exceptionally fine quality.

A party of former residents of Finland, long citizens of Fort Bragg, sailed for the home land this week to be away three months.

The heavy rains on almost every Sunday since the baseball season opened has caused Mendocino county teams to run behind financially.

It is generally conceded no more humane head for a county infirmary could be found anywhere than Ed Zimmerman of Mendocino county.

Fishing in all streams of the county has been poor up to date.

Be careful where you throw your lighted cigars and cigarettes when in the woods.

The Northwestern Pacific is to run a fast train through the county during the summer season.

The collection of garbage under municipal control is proving exceedingly satisfactory in Ukiah.

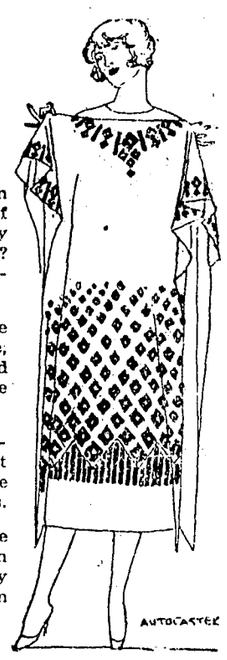
WHERE ECONOMY BEGINS!



Just how many frocks have you been forced to discard, because, in a fit of economy, you have tried to save money by washing or dyeing them yourself? The results are usually the same—unsatisfactory.

Economy is a fine thing—it should be practiced and encouraged by everyone, but in a matter of cleaning good clothes, the old saying, "The best is the cheapest in the long run," holds true.

Especially when the very best cleaning and dyeing available may be had at the reasonable prices charged by the French-American Cleaners and Dyers.

Prompt and efficient service, at the lowest possible price, has always been our method of doing business, as many of our Ukiah satisfied customers can testify.

WITNESSED TRAGEDY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Endicott, of Santa Rosa, were in Ukiah Thursday and Friday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rains. Mr. and Mrs. Endicott, who were returning from an automobile trip to Eureka, witnessed the accident that plunged Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Schleuter, honeymoners of Oakland, and Carl Ford in to eternity when their car, a coupe, went over a 200-foot embankment south of Garberville on the Eureka highway Thursday afternoon.

Personal Mention

Mrs. A. W. Martin went to Oakland last week as a delegate from the local chapter of the Pythian Sisters to the state convention of the order held there. Joe Wilson and John S. Todhunter represented the local lodge of the Knights at the Oakland state convention.

Gilbert Picou has returned to San Francisco following a short visit in Ukiah. Mr. Picou is pipe organist at the Metropolitan Theatre in San Francisco. He was accompanied here by his mother, Mrs. L. Picou, who will remain a few weeks.

Mrs. F. M. Wilson has been enjoying a visit in Berkeley with her daughter, Mrs. Alvin Deacon.

Little Accident Victim Doing Nicely At Home

"Jackie" Perelli-Minetti, so seriously injured a month ago, has been moved from Langland hospital to his home and is getting along nicely. Miss Elyse Daut, who cared for "Jackie" as his nurse while at Langland hospital, is with him at the Perelli home and will continue on the case for some time. Great satisfaction is expressed by the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Perelli over the manner in which the little victim of the accident has gotten on. Two of California's most famous specialists, Doctors Huncken and Smith, of San Francisco, after examining the injured child have stated the case was handled in the most skilful manner by Dr. S. L. Rea, local surgeon.

Hopland Happenings

(Special Correspondence of The Press)

HOPLAND, May 25.—G. W. Grant, pioneer merchant of this place and a civil war veteran passed away at his home here Friday after a serious illness due to apoplexy. Mr. Grant was a resident of East Hopland. He was 87 years old. He leaves four sons and a daughter. Interment was in the family burial plot in Ukiah Sunday following services held at the protestant church here.

Mrs. M. Knox, an aged lady of East Hopland, was found dead in bed Friday morning at her home. Death is said to have ensued shortly before the body was found. Mrs. Knox was buried Saturday morning at nine o'clock. The service was held at the Catholic church here.

The Hopland high school recently motored to Kelseyville where the Mask and Dagger Club, under the direction of Miss Lafka and Miss Rayburn of the faculty, presented three one-act playlets. Although the attendance was not large the trip was thoroughly enjoyed and the school sent letters of thanks to residents who provided motor cars for the trip.

The Hopland schools will close for the summer June 12. The high school will hold commencement exercises June 10 in the auditorium.

A large number of Hopland residents will motor to Ukiah tonight to attend the performance of "The Charm School" the student body play of the Ukiah high school.

SURGEON MAY MEND HIS BROKEN SPINE!

D. J. Cleveland, Victim Of Bad Fall, May Get Well In Time

D. J. Cleveland, son of R. L. Cleveland, who has been here since shortly after the first of the year, is planning on soon returning to his home in British Columbia and will likely drive north.

Had Back Broken.

Last year Mr. Cleveland was in the courthouse at Kamloops, B. C., being called to the court as a witness in a cattle-stealing case. While going about the courthouse Mr. Cleveland fell through a defective stairway, dropping between 12 and 15 feet and sustaining a fracture of the spine. Since that time Mr. Cleveland has been under the care of specialists, coming to California from Vancouver and Victoria at the suggestion of surgeons there, to seek surgical aid. Dr. S. L. Rea directed Mr. Cleveland to Dr. S. J. Huncken, the San Francisco bone specialist, and much benefit and a possible cure will probably be the result of treatment at the hands of Dr. Huncken. However, the case has been a most expensive one, not to mention the distress incidental to the fall.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Giorno went to Sonoma county last week where they attended the dedication ceremonies at the new Pythian home in the Valley of the Moon.

A. R. Sides, prominent agriculturist of Potter valley, was a Ukiah visitor Friday. Like many others Mr. Sides felt the late storm did more harm than good to the country.

Wayne Dooley, of Hopland, was a visitor to Ukiah Friday afternoon.

Miss Lempi Sandelin arrived from Berkeley Wednesday of last week to visit her father and brother, Frank and Walter Sandelin. Mrs. Frank Sandelin and Miss Stella Sandelin will likely come to Ukiah Friday and remain over Decoration Day, all returning to Berkeley later.

Clyde Brewer To Have Modern Service Station

Getting ready for heavy traffic on the Redwood Highway, C. C. Brewer, who owns The Forks property, will soon begin the erection of a handsome service station just south of the present old service station at that point. The structure will be one which will beautify the location and will be erected along the most up-to-date lines. There will be a pretty lawn and flower garden, retiring rooms for passengers of both sexes and the coloring will be bright and pleasing to the eye. Mr. Brewer's plans call for an outlay of something like $3,000. The work will be commenced as soon as Mr. Brewer returns from San Francisco where he now is picking out the type of station he believes best suited to the surroundings.

Perkins of this place states that both Supervisor Williams and himself sought and obtained the advise of two of the best attorneys in Ukiah upon the legality of the bill in question, and that both pronounced the claim illegal."

King Edward, eating his first apple dumpling, asked how they got the apple in.

MOTHER OF SUPERVISOR N. P. HOWE PASSES ON

Death Called Lady Beloved By All Who Knew Her

Friends in Mendocino were much saddened Wednesday on hearing of the death of Mrs. L. B. Howe who passed away at her home in Berkeley Tuesday evening. Mrs. Howe had failed of late but had been sitting up reading the evening paper when a sudden heart attack came on, death resulting almost immediately. Mrs. Howe was a native of Illinois, but came to California 50 years ago and to Potter valley 40 years back. Of late years the family home has been in Berkeley, where the younger children graduated from the University. Here Newton P. Howe, her late husband, passed away 13 years ago.

Left Many Children.

Mrs. Howe is survived by eight children — Frank Howe, of Upper Lake; Mrs. Annie Purvine, of Petaluma; Supervisor Newton P. Howe, of Point Arena; Mrs. Alice Graves and Dr. A. B. Howe, of Berkeley; Mrs. Laura P. Shelley and Henry Howe, of Sebastopol, and Alfred T. Howe, of Santa Rosa. There are eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Buried In Potter Valley.

Funeral services were conducted at Mrs. Howe's home in Berkeley by Rev. E. R. Willis, a Methodist minister who many years ago was presiding elder of Potter valley district and who had known the family all these years. Rev. Willis spoke of the influence exerted by both Mr. and Mrs. Howe in uplift of both the church and the community in Potter valley. He also paid a glowing tribute to her great influence as a mother.

The body was brought by auto hearse, accompanied by the family, to Potter valley Friday. The burial took place in the family plot Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Elliott of the Methodist church. Mrs. Howe had always wished her last resting place to be among dear friends of former years. The flowers were very beautiful and entirely covered the graves in the family plot.

Dr. L. K. Van Allen To Address Coast Meeting

Dr. L. K. Van Allen, of this city, will be the principal speaker before the bi-county convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to be held at Fort Bragg Thursday and Friday. Dr. Van Allen will speak on the "Narcotic Menace." The women's clubs of the coast section of the county have been asked to attend the meeting. Mrs. Van Allen will accompany her husband.

Will Complete Navarro Grade By Day Labor

The Board of Supervisors at the meeting last week rejected the several bids submitted for the completion of the Navarro grade on the coast road on the ground they were too high and provided for the completion of this piece of road by day's labor. It is understood Supervisor Howe proposes to start work in the very near future. The Navarro grade on the south side of the Navarro river represents the longest and steepest piece of grade on the coast road between Point Arena and Westport. If a car stalls in ascending this hill or brakes are not working well in descending it, the motorist is in a dangerous position. Many accidents have occurred here and it is hoped the new grade will be now put through.

Angered Cow Severely Injures Lake Co. Man

S. M. Dowell, of Upper Lake, was brought to Langland hospital Friday afternoon suffering several broken ribs and severe lacerations of the body and head as the result of being knocked down and trampled on by a vicious cow. Fortunately the animal had been dehorned or Mr. Dewell would not be alive to tell the tale. The injured man was brought here by Chas. Sandorn and placed under the care of Dr. L. K. Van Allen. The accident happened when Mr. Dewell entered the corral to milk the cows in the morning.

THE CHARM SCHOOL

a story with a college background and while it may be conceded it is difficult to look in the 'teens and also show a decided talent it was done Monday evening beyond a question. There were moments of intense interest worthy of the best efforts of the young performers, with lines of lighter moods to add variety.

The Clever Ones.

Of Billy Benjes and Virginia Herron playing the leads it may be said they showed consummate skill under the sympathetic direction of Mr. Chessall, who demonstrated a thorough understanding of the callowness of youth. As upon a previous occasion Miss Estelle Walker won histrionic laurels by her clever interpretation of the school secretary. She shared honors with the two leads in public approval and acting. Jack Montgomery, who has also made a previous bow to the theatre public; Lyn Wessels, La Verne Kehoe, Logan Anker, Lloyd Cox and Isabel Roeder all demonstrated their wide capacity for character roles.

Girls Did Excellently.

Of the 11 girl students at the school it may be said for pulchritude they have seldom been surpassed on the local stage. Their work in the song and dance numbers, directed by Miss Neil Conrad of the domestic science department of the school, was particularly good. The young ladies are among the most versatile in the community. No one else could play the role of the school girl flapper more delightfully and realistically and they were equally at home in the intricate mazes of the dance numbers. Led by Miss Phyllis Buchanan the young women were Misses Naomi Mason, Ruby Crawford, Margaret Cox, Vivian Giles, Lois Lawrence, Myrtle Elliot, Virginia Bucknell, Dora Gilmore, Zelpha Kehoe and Frances Rea. Miss Juanita Iversen was in the role of accompanist for the chorus.

Dresses Very Pretty.

The costuming was one of the charming features of the play as was the stage setting. Before and between the acts the Ukiah high school orchestra, directed by E. J. Anderson, filled in the time with delightful orchestration and once again emphasized the importance of music in the schools.

GET A DICTIONARY BEFORE THEY'RE GONE

Old-Time Lexicographers Would Marvel At Demand Today

When will the demand equal the supply? The supply of words always has been greater than the demand for ordinary usage, but of late the demand has been increasing rapidly—which is good news for the lexicographers who like to have their products put to use.

The late William M. Laffan, of the New York Sun, once said that he delighted in driving his readers to the dictionary. He believed that looking up words was a good habit. But even then there was less use for dictionaries than at the present time.

The more extended use of words calls for a greater use of the dictionary—and the one dictionary that everybody should have is the New Universities Dictionary. If the great lexicographers of the past could know of the demands for this new volume, they would surely marvel at it.

The coupon printed on page two of this issue shows how you can come into immediate possession of one of these useful volumes.

The price of the Universities Dictionary is 98 cents; if sent by mail add 7 cents. The Republican Press for one year and the Dictionary can both be had for $3.00.

Gossip and Comment on the Week's Theatrical Events

FOR FORMER RESIDENT

Mrs. H. L. Preston won the favor offered for high score at the bridge luncheon over which Mrs. F. M. Reynolds presided Thursday afternoon at her West Standley street home. The affair complimented Mrs. Albert Hardie, of Oakland, former social favorite here and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Romer, who is visiting local friends. The table appointments, carried out in a pink color scheme, included a crystal bowl of sweet peas and ferns, their beauty reflected in an oval mirror placed in the center of the table. Luncheon favors were corsage bouquets of sweet peas and delicate ferns. Bridge was enjoyed for several hours following the luncheon which was served at one o'clock. Those asked to meet Mrs. Hardie were Mrs. S. L. Rea, Mrs. H. L. Preston, Mrs. G. P. Anderson, Mrs. R. Thomas, Mrs. H. O. Cleland, Mrs. Alfred Pioda, Mrs. E. B. Gibson, Mrs. C. M. Mannon, Mrs. P. H. Joseph.

AT KINGSLEY CHAPTER

Monday evening, May 17, Kingsley Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, enjoyed a special program, dedicated to the nation-wide observance of Mother's Day. Mrs. G. C. Burke headed the committee in charge of the delightful program numbers presented at the close of the business session and included a reading with piano accompaniment by Mrs. J. C. Reifschneider and Mrs. Minnie Wellman and a group of mother songs by Mrs. Margaret Van Dyke Ford. Following the program an evening of old-fashioned dancing was enjoyed with a refreshment service in the banquet hall where sweet peas made a charming floral setting. Mrs. Burke was warmly felicitated upon the success of the evening's entertainment, which was due, in large measure, to her personal effort.

DEPARTURE REGRETTED

Ukiah generally and educational circles particularly, will learn with regret of the contemplated departure of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blackman for Willits, where Mr. Blackman has been offered the principalship of the Willits high school and Mrs. Blackman a position on the faculty. No residents in recent years have won such wide commendation for community service as have Mr. and Mrs. Blackman, he in his capacity as supervisor of the Mendocino valley schools and Mrs. Blackman as teacher of English in the Ukiah high school and it is with exceeding great regret Ukiah will learn of their departure.

ENJOYED CHAUTAUQUA

Mrs. J. L. Brown, of this city, was in Willits last week where she enjoyed Chautauqua as the guest of the Misses Ellen and Flora De Camp. The entertainment was of a superior character and the big tent was well crowded, many going from Ukiah nightly to enjoy the evening performances.

MYSTIC CLAYTON IS CAUSING SENSATION

Work Last Evening Was Of Most Uncanny Kind Imaginable

Mystic Clayton opened at The State Theatre last night and was greeted by a large crowd. He will be here three days. With him is Count De Ziska. The crowd last night went away unable to explain what had taken place. Count De Ziska has charge of the first part in Magic and Illusions of the Far East, which included shooting a marked bullet through a lady's body—this is one of the sensations of the east. Wednesday night the feature illusion will be the famous sword girl—in which the girl, Miss Pauline Richards, is placed in a box and 20 army swords are placed from side to side at every angle, to explain this feature is impossible.

He Has No Equal.

The second part of the show is taken by Mystic Clayton with his Crystal Simla Seance, in which it is claimed he has no equal, and the papers of San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento and other places are loud in their praise for his masterful and uncanny work—calls those by name in the audience—answers sealed questions—and many other interesting experiments that belong to the occult science. Mystic Clayton will give a special matinee for ladies only Thursday afternoon—he says the ladies have delicate and personal questions they do not care to ask in the open theatre—so a special show for ladies only will be given.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS

Mrs. F. M. Reynolds entertained a group of ladies Friday afternoon who meet occasionally with their sewing to pass an afternoon socially and in needlework. Upon this occasion a few guests were asked to meet with the usual gathering. Tea was served prior to leave-taking.

pectations, both from the quality and quantity of the music and the attendance, which with the exception of the oratorio, was the largest on record.

Everyone Was Delighted.

Under the direction of Mr. Anderson the ensemble of young musicians seemed endowed with the power to express at once the whole effect and the personal incident of the compositions played as well as the vision and spirit of the composers. To the listeners it was really marvelous that so much could have been accomplished in so short a time and on every side was heard expressions of approval for the director and the schools that had brought about the wonderful result. Outstanding features in the concert by the orchestra included a clarinet solo by Stanley Rea who played a number from Rigoletto with Charlotte Mannon at the piano; a double violin duet by Martha Mannon, Rovella Curtis, Abraham Hoffman and Toivo Nyrhila, with Marie Rice at the piano, and an orchestration arranged with a solo for the cello which was played by Frances Rea. Each of the above numbers brought unstinted applause, as did the other numbers presented by the orchestra and band. Between the parts of the concert speeches were made by Principal C. M. Fulkerson of the high school, K. C. Eversole of the board of trustees of the elementary school, and Chas. Kasch. Each speaker emphasized the need for more time to teach music in the schools which has already been granted and lauded the efforts of Mr. Anderson.

IN AMERICAN MANNERS IS DARING MALE STAR

Life Is Risked In Every Film He Appears In These Days

One of the most daring of screen players is Richard Talmadge, who is starred in "American Manners," the F. B. O. picture coming to The State Theatre Monday.

He Is A Swiss.

Richard was born in Caumberg, Switzerland, and first appeared on the stage at the age of four. His father was famous not only in Europe but in America, as an actor and a showman. He was master of 13 different acts in which he played with his sons in vaudeville. Richard Talmadge, though comparatively a new star, is already known throughout the country because of his daring and fearlessness. He risks his life many times in every picture in which he appears and every thrill which is registered on the screen he performs himself. He was starred with great success recently in "Let's Go!" and "On Time."

Western Romance Full Of Happenings Of The Old-Time West

"Sundown," First National's long-expected drama of the west, which has proved to be the most pretentious effort of that company's own producing units, comes to the State Theatre Thursday and Friday of next week.

"Sundown" is an original story written by Earl Hudson, supervisor of the First National productions. The story unfolds the dramatic theme of the passing of the old west before the advance of cultivation. This is, incidentally, current history, since the encroachment on the unfenced ranges of the southwest recently caused American cattlemen to unite their herds and drive them across the Rio Grande into Mexico, and it was these scenes which were filmed by First National to be incorporated in "Sundown."

Great Herds Seen.

Never again will such huge herds be seen in the United States. More than 100,000 head of cattle will be seen winding their way in a huge line half a mile wide in this great production.

The human players who enact their roles against a background of awe-inspiring grandeur and immensity are: Hobart Bosworth, Bessie Love, Roy Stewart, Charlie Murray, Arthur Hoyt, Charles Sellon, Charles B. Crockett, Bernard Randall, Wilfrid North, Hal Wilson and Jere Austin.

TO TERMINATE ESTATE

Application to have the life estate in certain property in this county terminated at the death of the late W. K. Dillingham has been filed.

YOUTHFUL BEAUTIES IN HANDSOME GOWNS

Dressmaker From Paris Shows Loveliness In Many Ways

A big fashion show picture coming to The State Theatre.

That's "The Dressmaker From Paris," featuring Leatrice Joy and Ernest Torrence.

A carnival of youth, romance and gorgeously gowned feminine beauty. A big comedy-love story laid in Paris and a town in the American West. And the Fourteen International Beauty Models, chosen by famous judges as the 14 most beautiful women in the world! Playing real parts in the picture and showing the last word in women's attire straight from Paris.

Here Next Tuesday.

Sounds interesting!

"The Dressmaker From Paris," coming to The State Theatre on Tuesday next, features Leatrice Joy and Ernest Torrence in the leading roles, with Allan Forrest, Mildred Harris and others just as well known in the strong supporting cast.

The story is an original for the screen by Adelaide Heilbron and Howard Hawks. Paul Bern, who made "Worldly Goods" and others, directed. It is Leatrice Joy's first picture in nearly a year.

"WINGS OF YOUTH" A STRONG SOCIAL STORY

Proves Usually Heart-Aches Follow Joys In Real Life

Motion picture fans who like their drama in fine settings will be pleased when they see "Wings of Youth," the William Fox production which opens at The State Theatre next Wednesday with Madge Bellamy and Ethel Clayton as the central figures. The picture tells a story of modern society, its mad tendencies and the resulting heart-aches.

Some Pretty Women.

In addition to Miss Bellamy and Miss Clayton, Katherine Perry and Marian Harlan, who are among the most beautiful girls on the screen, are in the cast and all of them wear an assortment of gowns that would put a Parisian modiste to shame.

There is plenty of love interest in the picture as well as comedy relief for a strong dramatic theme. Among the male members of the cast are Robert Cain, Charles Farrell and Freeman Wood.

NEW CURWOOD TALE PROVIDED THE SCREEN

Hunted Woman Is One Of Best Creations Of Great Writer

"The Hunted Woman," the William Fox picturization of James Oliver Curwood's celebrated novel of the North country, is the attraction at The State Theatre Sunday.

Heralded by William Fox as one of the most ambitious Alaskan pictures ever to issue from its studios, this virile, picturesque story is said to have involved tremendous hardships. Seven of the principal members of the cast spent 21 days amid snowy wastes where the thermometer ranged from 12 to 32 degrees below zero.

Seena Owen and Earl Schenck divide leading honors and both players gain added prestige by their work. Cyril Chadwick, Diana Miller, Victor MacLaglen, Francis McDonald and Harvey Clark are also in the cast.

C. B. Melville Likely To Have To Run Again

C. B. Melville, who so well represented Mendocino county during the session of the legislature which closed two weeks ago, was in Ukiah Friday from his Fort Bragg home. Mr. Melville undoubtedly will, if he listens to the urging of people from all over the county, have to consent to again make the race at the election next year. From many places about the county have come words of praise for Mr. Melville. He was a first termer, but, notwithstanding all of the handicaps such a position carries with it, he emerged from the deliberations with praise from all sides. The taxpayers of this county could not do better than retain Mr. Melville in his present position.

Mrs. P. A. Pioda, of San Francisco, was a recent guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pioda, of this city.

MAKING A RAIN RECORD

Since the storm began Saturday at Fort Bragg 3.08 inches of rain has fallen, and of this amount 1.99 inches fell on Sunday. This makes a total of 4.22 inches of rain for the month of May, and for the season to date 48 inches. During May, 1915, the rainfall was 4.38 inches and from all appearances this month of May will put that record in the background.

Palace Hotel Is Adding Tents For The Autoists

For several seasons past motorists who did not desire to go to a public park have sought sleeping quarters of an open-air kind here and, to take care of this class of travelers, Frank Sandelin, at an outlay of several thousand dollars, has just completed the erection of 14 sleeping tents. The tents are located on the Sandelin property on the north side of Smith street between State and School streets. Each of the tents is provided with running water, floors and the best of beds obtainable. Electric lights are in each of the tents and the grounds are well lighted. There is ample parking space and shower baths for the men and women travelers. The open-air quarters will probably be well patronized throughout the summer.

MOTHER OF SUPERVISOR N. P. HOWE PASSES ON

Death Called Lady Beloved By All Who Knew Her

Friends in Mendocino were much saddened Wednesday on hearing of the death of Mrs. L. B. Howe who passed away at her home in Berkeley Tuesday evening. Mrs. Howe had failed of late but had been sitting up reading the evening paper when a sudden heart attack came on, death resulting almost immediately. Mrs. Howe was a native of Illinois, but came to California 50 years ago and to Potter valley 40 years back. Of late years the family home has been in Berkeley, where the younger children graduated from the University. Here Newton P. Howe, her late husband, passed away 13 years ago.

Left Many Children.

Mrs. Howe is survived by eight children — Frank Howe, of Upper Lake; Mrs. Annie Purvine, of Petaluma; Supervisor Newton P. Howe, of Point Arena; Mrs. Alice Graves and Dr. A. B. Howe, of Berkeley; Mrs. Laura P. Shelley and Henry Howe, of Sebastopol, and Alfred T. Howe, of Santa Rosa. There are eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Buried in Potter Valley.

Funeral services were conducted at Mrs. Howe's home in Berkeley by Rev. E. R. Willis, a Methodist minister who many years ago was presiding elder of Potter valley district and who had known the family all these years. Rev. Willis spoke of the influence exerted by both Mr. and Mrs. Howe in uplift of both the church and the community in Potter valley. He also paid a glowing tribute to her great influence as a mother.

The body was brought by auto hearse, accompanied by the family, to Potter valley Friday. The burial took place in the family plot Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Elliott of the Methodist church. Mrs. Howe had always wished her last resting place to be among dear friends of former years. The flowers were very beautiful and entirely covered the graves in the family plot.

Will Complete Navarro Grade By Day Labor

The Board of Supervisors at the meeting last week rejected the several bids submitted for the completion of the Navarro grade on the coast road on the ground they were too high and provided for the completion of this piece of road by day's labor. It is understood Supervisor Howe proposes to start work in the very near future. The Navarro grade on the south side of the Navarro river represents the longest and steepest piece of grade on the coast road between Point Arena and Westport. If a car stalls in ascending this hill or brakes are not working well in descending it, the motorist is in a dangerous position. Many accidents have occurred here and it is hoped the new grade will be now put through.

Angered Cow Severely Injures Lake Co. Man

S. M. Dowell, of Upper Lake, was brought to Langland hospital Friday afternoon suffering several broken ribs and severe lacerations of the body and head as the result of being knocked down and trampled on by a vicious cow. Fortunately the animal had been dehorned or Mr. Dewell would not be alive to tell the tale. The injured man was brought here by Chas. Sandorn and placed under the care of Dr. L. K. Van Allen. The accident happened when Mr. Dewell entered the corral to milk the cows in the morning.

Miss Katherine Pheips, of this city, is visiting friends in Sonoma county for a fortnight.
